QUERY TWENTY.

ANDREWS. A. M. P. Nov. 10, 1929. "Virginia Heraldica," by Wm. Armstrong Crozier, vol. 5, gives: Robert, son of Moses and Letitia (Cook) Andrews, and great grandson of John Andrews, who came from Leicestershire, England, to Maryland, Rutland County. Robert was born in Pennsylvania, was tutor in family of Mauris Page, professor at William and Mary, 1779. He was private secretary to General Nelson at Yorktown, 1781. Represented Williamsburg, 1788 at State Convention; member Legislature 1798; married (1) Elizabeth Ballard, (2) Mary Blair.

John Andrews, Old Rappahannock, Va., 1676, bought 139 acres of land on the south side of the Rappahannock River. His son John, born about 1680 in Essex County, Virginia, died 1754, and his son John, born about 1712, died 1771. In turn, his son James (2), born 1762 in Virginia, died May 4, 1816, in Lexington, Oglethorpe County, Georgia, had several children. Judge Garnett Andrews, of Washington, Wilkes County, Georgia, was a son. Full history of this Andrews family from this John, who died in 1816 will be found in Good, Virginia, Cousins.

See Neill's Virginia Carolorum, page 475. John Andrews, a prominent Colonist in 1630-70, had a son, William, 1651, and perhaps son Robert.

And 133 HILL-RUSSELL—March 9, 1930, J. T. H.

William Andrews (1) came to Accomac County, Virginia, 1620. Maj. William Andrews' wife married three times—(2) William Smart, (3) Col. Edward Hill, of "Shirley." Col. Edward Hill settled in Charles City County, Virginia, and died 1669. He built Shirley—one of the showplaces of Virginia—and left it to his son, Edward (2), born 1637, died 1700, who married (1) Elizabeth Williams from England—said to be very beautiful—and had daughter Elizabeth (2) and son Edward (3), who died without issue. Elizabeth (2) married Edward Carter and Shirley passed to Carter family. Edward as descended from Robert or King Carter of Virginia.

QUERY TWENTY AND ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-THREE.

ANDREWS—Captain Edmond Scarborough, Justice Accomac, 1631-2; House of Burgesses, 1629-31-32; married Hanner —; died 1632 or 1635. His son (1) Charles (afterward Sir Charles), born 1616, entered Cains College, Cambridge, 1639; became physician to Charles II, James II and William III; member of Parliament, knighted 1669; died 1693; buried at Cranford, Middlesex; had son Charles (2). Captain Edmond's son, Colonel Edmond, member of House of Burgesses for Northampton County, Virginia; Speaker of the House 1645; justice, Sheriff and surveyor general of Virginia; died 1670. His son (1) Colonel Charles, of Accomac, died 1703; married daughter of Richard Burnett. (2) Captain Edmond, Jr. (3) Littleton. (4) Mathilda, who married Colonel John West, of Accomac. (5) Tabitha Smart married Richard Hill. Mary Andrews' mother was Mary Charlton, daughter of Stephen Charlton. They had daughter Tabitha, who married John Custis.

Query—Is William Hill Andrews, of Buncombe County, North Carolina, son of this Mary Scarborough Andrews? Did they live at Raleigh, N. C., or in Buncombe County?—A. M. P.
